

Welcome to the Whitemud Crossing Branch

Opened in 2002 after relocating from Southgate Mall, the Whitemud Crossing Branch serves south Edmonton's papastew Ward. In 2024, the branch made updates to improve access to its theatre and program areas, enhancing the overall customer experience. One of our largest branches with a collection size of over 128,000 items and the highest borrowing of all EPL locations, Whitemud Crossing remains an active community hub for borrowing, exploring, and gathering.

Features and Spaces

Whitemud Crossing features a large and active children's area that welcomes kids of all ages to play, read, and explore. For those seeking a quieter atmosphere, the branch also offers a reading area in front of the branch as well as a study room with comfortable seating, providing an ideal space for learning and focused work.

Makerspace

Whitemud Crossing is one of only two branches with bookable recording studios, empowering everyone— from beginner to professional—to produce music, podcasts, and other audio projects. Its Makerspace also includes multimedia computer workstations and vinyl cutting tools, encouraging digital exploration and hands-on creativity.

Theatre

The branch features a 120-seat theatre with a cinema-style screen, enabling regular film programs and community events.
