

Gastone Monai is the Chief Financial Officer at the Edmonton Public Library and has been with EPL since September 2003. He is responsible for all financial, treasury, purchasing, capital project financing, risk management oversight, leasing, insurance and general legal matters. He is an active participant in numerous City of Edmonton committees on behalf of EPL and provides financial leadership at EPL Board and City Council meetings in support of the CEO.

He is an accounting professional with a Chartered Professional Accounting designation and has over 29 years of public sector experience. He is passionate and proud of the successes in securing clean financial audits and for developing financial strategies to fund EPL capital projects.

When not at work, he loves to travel.
