

Mike Lewis is the Director, Human Resource Services, and a member of the Executive Team at EPL. In this role, Mike has overall accountability for leadership and execution of EPL's human resources strategies that support the achievement of EPL's strategic and business plans. Mike has a diverse background in both public and industry organizations where he lead integrated human resource functions in differing sectors, including power and energy, production, telecommunications and public services. He has extensive experience in his field including areas of strategic HR planning and program development, organizational design, talent management, total rewards, labour and employee relations.

A trusted advisor and leader in his profession, Mike is a certified human resource professional (CHRP), and a member of the Human Resource Institute of Alberta and the Society of Human Resource Management.

He is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan with a Bachelor of Arts and the University of Regina with a Bachelor of Administration awarded with Great Distinction.