- Cortada, Pilar, Cooking a Home: A Collection of the Recipes and Stories of Syrian Refugees
 - “...when confronting harsh conditions like those of life in a refugee camp or while missing family members left behind, a dish of home-cooked stuffed zucchinis can immediately elicit feelings of warmth and comfort and transform a foreign place into a welcoming home.” From the publisher
- Cupolo, Diego, Seven Syrians: War Accounts from Syrian Refugees
- Goodwin, Debi, Citizens of Nowhere: From Refugee Camp to Canadian Campus
 - “An inspiring story of courage, adaptation and determination — a year in the life of 11 refugee students entering universities across Canada.” From the publisher
- Starr, David From Bombs to Books: The Remarkable Stories of Refugee Children
 - Shares the experience of a diverse group of refugees, their “deeply moving stories of his students, their parents, and the staff at Edmonds who support them. He describes the upheavals many of these families have undergone and how they managed to flee some of the most dangerous lands and people on earth.” From the publisher
- Thompson, Craig, Habibi (graphic novel, fiction)
 - “At once contemporary and timeless, Habibi gives us a love story of astounding resonance: a parable about our relationship to the natural world, the cultural divide between the first and third worlds, the common heritage of Christianity and Islam, and, most potently, the magic of storytelling.” From the publisher
