

Raman Deol, CA CPA is a senior manager with Deloitte LLP, a multinational professional services firm. Raman is based in the Audit & Assurance function and in her current role with Deloitte she is focused on leading collaborations with auditors and strategic leaders in various countries to educate audit professionals.

Raman is a graduate of the University of Alberta, where she obtained her Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Commerce degrees before pursuing and obtaining her Chartered Accountancy designation. Professionally, Raman excels at taking a diligent, organized and compassionate approach to her work and is focused on continuous improvement as well as being a strong team player and leader. Born and raised in Edmonton, Raman is committed to contributing efforts to help Edmonton continue to grow and thrive. Raman is also a lifelong user and advocate of public libraries and strongly believes they fundamentally enrich communities and society.