An Elevated Cooking Experience that Gives Back

The Edmonton Public Library (EPL) welcomes you to embark on a culinary journey that promises an upscale experience while supporting community programs at EPL.

More than just a cooking experience, Cooking for a Cause is a chance to connect, collaborate, and create a meaningful experience in the Stanley A. Milner Library's professional kitchen.

Guided by an experienced chef, your group will have the opportunity to participate in an interactive cooking session, gaining new skills while creating elevated dishes that are sure to impress. Enjoy your creations in a beautifully decorated space with add-ons available to make your time extra special.

Share this memorable experience with your colleagues, friends, or relatives and make a positive impact on your community. Net proceeds from this program go toward EPL initiatives that help strengthen our community through literacy and lifelong learning.

Choose Your Experience

About EPL

Great libraries shape great cities. For more than 110 years, the Edmonton Public Library has been a place that inspires, connects, and expands minds.

Our mission is simple: We Share. We share expertise, information, technology and space with Edmontonians who want to learn, connect, create, discover, and enjoy.

EPL is a cornerstone of Edmonton's cultural and social life, with 21 welcoming locations across the city, mobile literacy vans, and a 24/7 online presence. Every day, Edmontonians benefit from the programs, resources and support that EPL provides.

From working professionals borrowing the latest reads, to daycare groups learning to code, to new Canadians practising English, to seniors getting help with eBooks — thousands of people rely on and love EPL.
